you are telling me that wiwth a war going on, scandals in the white house, rumpsfield screwing up, bush screwing up, this good country going to hell, faster than a 64 1/2 mustang, you people actually have time to worry about me listening to traffic and weather reports, that its bad for me. well, where were you in september of 2001, huh, i'll tell you where you were, you had your thumb in your ass, worrying about this that and the third. GET OVER IT!!! it aint hurtin anyone, its helping, you politicians are about as useful as a table with no legs, honest to god, get a life, tackle issues that matter. this is pathetic and i am ashamed to say that i am from a country that that even considers this an issue.
